Funeral services were held Saturday forenoon at St. Gilbert's church in Grayslake for William A. Chandler, 62, former Antioch resident, who died at 1:40 p. m. Wednesday at his home at Gages lake.

He was widely known as an auctioneer and for many years served as president of the Lake County Fair association. When he was stricken two years ago he was honorary president of the Fair association.

Mr. Chandler was a life long resident of Lake county. Surviving are his widow, Martha, three sons, Harold, William and Ray of Gurnee, a daughter, Mrs. William Schad of California, and six grandchildren.

Four Hurt When Cars Of Antioch, Lake Villa Men Collide at Gurnee

Four persons were injured in a collision of cars driven by Antioch and Lake Villa men at Gurnee Monday morning.

Ralph K. Dickson, 33, Antioch, rammed his car into the abutment of a bridge when he was forced to swerve his eastbound car to avoid another motorist coming into the road, and came to a halt in the center of the bridge where the car was promptly struck by that of Allan G. Hamlin of Lake Villa.

The two drivers were cut and bruised and two persons in the Dickson car were also injured.

Postmaster Kept Busy Catching Water From Leaking Roof at P. O.

Roy Kufalk is Antioch's postmaster. He is also the local weather observer.

These two jobs had a tendency to mix Tuesday afternoon when rain from melted snow began dripping through the roof of the post-office into the mailing room.

Roy had to move mail quickly and get buckets to catch the water which moved about as it chose to fall from a beam along which it ran from a leak in the roof near a heat ventilator.

The postmaster's measurement of precipitation at an early stage in the game of "catch the drips" was five quarts.

What puzzled Kufalk was that the roof should leak in a comparatively new building.

No mail was damaged.

1,200 Children Got To See Santa Claus In Antioch Saturday

An estimated 1,200 children got to see Santa Claus last Saturday afternoon and receive a treat from the jolly old fellow.

He was escorted from the Antioch High school corner to the Antioch Rescue Squad building where he held forth the rest of the day, giving out candy and receiving orders for presents.

Many children of Antioch had to wait awhile for the appearance of Santa Claus Saturday, all because of an error in the time given by this newspaper, for which it is indeed sorry.

The error occurred when a promise was given last year that Santa would be brought early enough thereafter so that he would have enough time to see all of them and that the younger ones would not have to miss their afternoon naps.

With this in mind the notes given the reporter were misread.

To the many who went to the trouble to bring the youngsters down during the forenoon, again we say we are sorry.

Found short of time to hear the whole story of all of the children, Santa was said to have told some of the children he would be back at Reeves Drug store in a couple of weeks.

Say Strike Is Over

Antioch men employed at Johnson Motors in Waukegan reported last evening that the 23-day strike is over. They said that they will receive a 7 1/2 cent general raise and other concessions. The die-casters were not able to get rid of their superintendent as they wished, however. The meeting was held last evening and it is expected that 2,000 men will soon be back at work.

Antioch Beats Hebron, Libertyville in First Games of B.B. Season

Will Open Conference Play at Grayslake on Friday December 3

Antioch High School's basketball team got off to a good start in non-conference play by beating both Hebron and Libertyville.

Last night (Wednesday) they were scheduled to play at Lake Forest where another victory was expected.

The Sequoits beat Hebron here last Friday night 72 to 47. The varsity was so far out in front at the end of the third period that Coach Dick Scott allowed reserves to finish the game even though they were outscored 20 to 9.

Antioch led at the first quarter 16 to 6 and then rolled into high gear in the second quarter which they took 24 to 8 for a 40-14 lead at half time. By the end of the third quarter it was 62 to 27, and Scott then called off his top warriors.

Ben Floyd was high scorer with 17 points. Warren Brownie contributed seven field goals and Fred Clark eight. For Hebron, B. Coulman was top scorer with 17 points.

The victory at Libertyville the following evening was more difficult, the Sequoits edging the Wildcats 49 to 44. Although outscored from the field, Antioch made up the loss through deadly accuracy in foul shooting.

Somewhat tired from the night before game the pace of the Sequoits was somewhat slower, but they were also up against a good team that will set the pace for the North Suburban conference.

Again Ben Floyd was high scorer, accounting for 17 of his team's 19 points in the second half and enough in the first half to bring the total to 23. Dick Weidner was high scorer for Libertyville with 15 points and Larry Ray second with 13.

Libertyville took the lead in the first few minutes of play but the Sequoits fought back to obtain a 14-11 advantage at the end of the quarter. At the half Antioch led 30 to 25, and at the third quarter it was 40 to 31 in Antioch's favor.

The Wildcats fought back in the final quarter and were within three points of tying the score when Floyd sank the final shot which gave the Sequoits the 5-point margin of victory.

After more than a week's rest Antioch will open its conference season one week from Friday night at Grayslake (Dec. 3).

Troop 80 Receives Trophy

Grass Lake Boy Scout Troop 80 received the R. W. Symon Camping Trophy for the northwest district and the National Camping Award for 1954. The awards were presented to the Scoutmaster Lester Hribar last Wednesday at the Round Table in Libertyville.

Much To Be Thankful For

There Will Be Old Time Songs, But You May Not Recognize Them at the Band Minstrel Show

Chamber of Commerce Will Be Entertained By Vincent Gottschalk

Vincent Gottschalk, an outstanding entertainer will be the headliner at the second annual dinner of the Antioch Chamber of Commerce which will be held at 7 p. m. Wednesday, Dec. 8 at Smart's Country House.

Gottschalk supplies an unending flow of wit and while he talks he executes mystifying tricks, executes feats of memory, and even has members of his audience doing tricks which they themselves cannot explain.

Gottschalk has a reputation as a radio and TV announcer.

Tickets for the event including the dinner will be $3.50 according to Art Meyer, and all merchants and their guests are invited to attend.

Officers for the organization will be installed at this time.

Walter Good Shocked, Falls 15 ft. from Sign

Walter Good, operator of a service station south of the village, was injured at 1:30 p. m. Sunday when he was knocked to the ground through a severe shock while fixing an electric sign.

First aid was given by the Antioch Rescue squad and he was taken to Victory Memorial hospital in Waukegan where he was X-rayed to determine whether he has a skull fracture or not. He does not remember what happened.

Good was repairing a neon sign and was working at a height of 15 feet when he fell landing on his head and shoulders. He was unconscious for about 15 minutes.

The station is known as Good's Save More Service Station.

4-H Club Invites Members

The 4-H Club will receive new members until June, it was announced this week. Meetings are held at Crooked Lake twice each month on Mondays. Lillian McNeil is president of the club and Judi Riegler is vice president. For more information about the club those interested may call Lillian at Lake Villa 6-8376.

Mrs. Elva Davis, a former Antioch resident and the sister of Mrs. Effie Nelson, is a patient at St. Therese hospital, Waukegan.

There will be a real test of skill in identifying musical selections of the Antioch band when it plays the seven selections for identification at its minstrel show at 8 p. m. Saturday.

Not that the band plays so badly that the tunes cannot be identified—not that at all, but the band will purposely play variations of some old tunes known to everybody in such a manner as to confuse the audience a little.

The person who comes nearest writing the correct titles will get a service for four of Pickard china now on display at the Antioch News. There will also be a consolation prize.

William Dow, director of the show, said that thirty-five men and women comprising mainly the adult chorus of the high school evening class, will be in black face to give the musical background and to sing special numbers. Louis Chenette will direct them and the band.

Bill Lahti will serve as interlocutor and Dow and Leonard DiMatteo will be the end men pitching questions and funny replies to him.

Special solos, a monologue, a barbershop quartet, several kinds of dancing—all will be worked in to make an entertaining and enjoyable program. Rehearsals were held Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights and the dress rehearsal will be held tomorrow (Friday) evening.

The show will be at the high school auditorium and a large crowd is anticipated.

Werner of the Columbus (Ohio) Area give a challenging message. Antioch Pauses Today To Give Thanks For Her Many Blessings

Services Held at Methodist, Episcopal and Catholic Churches

The Antioch community paused today to give thanks.

The American tradition was kept alive by the many who in various ways expressed their thankfulness for habitation in a land of peace and plenty.

Most popular of the songs in the hit parade today is "Count Your Blessings Instead of Counting Sheep."

Many persons will seek the church and its spiritual atmosphere as a place to offer up their thanks in prayer and song.

Members of the Methodist church of Antioch and the Congregational church of Millburn are scheduled to meet together at the Methodist church here for a special Thanksgiving Day service at 9 a. m. today (Thursday).

The service is to be led by the Rev. Howard Benson and the Rev. L. H. Messersmith, ministers of the two churches. It is open to the public.

The Rev. Edmond E. Hood is to conduct the Eucharist at 9:30 a. m. at St. Ignatius' Episcopal church. Music will be furnished by the choir.

An 8 a. m. mass with Fr. Francis Johnson in charge was planned for St. Peter's church.

Spontaneous expressions of gratitude by church members for the blessings which a fuller understanding of God's love had brought into their lives is a feature of the annual Thanksgiving service field in Christian Science Society church, Antioch, on Thanksgiving morning.

A period devoted to voluntary statements of gratitude is included in the Thanksgiving Day service in all Christian Science churches. Testimonies included mention of healing of physical disorders through the application of Christian Science as well as other blessings.

The importance of expressing gratitude to God in deeds rather than just in speech, was emphasized in the Lesson-Sermon read from the book entitled "Thanksgiving." It was especially prepared for the day, and consisted of selections from the Bible and from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy.

Today is a day of family gatherings. In many homes youngsters are home from college or private schools for the three-day holiday. It is an occasion for relatives to unite for feasting and visiting.

Turkey is still the favorite meat for Thanksgiving as it was when the Pilgrims celebrated the first Thanksgiving Day in America.

While the weather wasn't to conducive to travel, many took advantage of the holiday to go to distant points. Those who remained at home had the entertainment that radio and television afforded. Restaurants in the main, especially those advertising special dinners, will do good business.

Most business houses were closed for the day.

Scout Organization Is Completed Through Aid Of Antioch L. O. Moose

Formation of the Antioch Cub Scout organization for Pack 92 was completed last week through the cooperation of the Antioch Loyal Order of the Moose who have assumed sponsorship of the pack, and volunteers of two more Den Mothers.

A financial contribution was also made by the sponsor which will aid materially in stabilizing the pack treasury. Walter Good was selected by the Moose as institutional representative and Richard Eckert as pack chairman. Mrs. Lorraine Blackman and Mrs. Wilma Pullen have volunteered to serve as den mothers thereby filling all existing vacancies.

As a result of this outstanding cooperation, the annual charter renewal containing the names of 59 boys will be forwarded to the local council in time to meet the November 30 deadline. The organization as presently set up is as follows:

Institutional Representative—Walter Good; Pack Chairman—Richard Eckert; Committeemen—Bruno Manzardo, Walter Delaney, and Frank Kennedy, Jr.

Economic Highlights

Lately there has been a great deal of discussion about the employment situation, with the emphasis on unemployment. As is inevitable in such matters, much of the talk seems to have generated more heat than light, and has tended to create an erroneous or distorted view.

This is not to deny the fact that there is unemployment. Recent figures indicate 270,000 out of work in Michigan, which is one of the big surplus-labor areas in the nation. Much of this unemployment is due to seasonal shut-downs in the automotive industry. Late reports also indicate full-time unemployment in Illinois at 350,000. To take another example, sales of coal have dropped, and again the unemployed rolls show the trend. But such events are not reflections of the true picture, and in the cases mentioned there is real hope that changes for the better are coming.

Secretary of Labor Mitchell recently wrote a review of labor's status which appeared in a number of large dailies. It contains some highly interesting facts and opinions, and it may help to correct a number of misconceptions.

Mr. Mitchell begins by stating that "the working men and women of America are doing well." For the past two years, production line workers have averaged $70 a week. In September, the average reached $71.86, the highest level for that month in history. Take-home pay—the amount the worker actually gets after all the payroll deductions are made—also reached a new high of $66.78 in September.

Then the Secretary observed that "this is not the full story of our progress"—obviously, if prices had continued to show substantial increases, the mere wage figures would have small meaning. But, for two years, prices have shown a remarkable degree of stability. So our "real wages"—our actual purchasing power—have risen too.

Mr. Mitchell does not minimize unemployment—the government, he writes, is taking all possible steps to reduce it. But he points out that, while there are just over 3,000,000 unemployed, 62,000,000 people are employed. He writes, "I believe that in our national concern over the welfare of the individual worker this employment side of the picture has received too little attention."

The Secretary also describes some of the activities of his department. It maintains 1700 employment offices, and last year these helped place 16,000,000 men and women in skilled jobs. It has instigated factory safety programs which have produced striking results. It enforces the wage and hour laws. It collects and publishes all manner of facts and information about jobs. To quote him once more, "In the Labor department, we take very seriously our mandate from congress to promote, develop and foster the welfare of the wage earners of the United States. To us this means all the wage earners—organized and unorganized."

Gross Roots Opinion

PINE BLUFF, ARK., COMMERCIAL: "A small town is a place where everybody knows what everybody else is doing, but they read the local paper to see if they've been caught at it."

ABILENE, KAS., DAILY REFLECTOR-CHRONICLE: "So you don't intend to vote this year. . . . Have you forgotten why your ancestors came to this country—whether it was with the Pilgrims or just a generation or so ago? Don't you care that if the heritage we received is not tended and nourished it may not be intact for the generations that come after us? Do you know that there are men who live in terror and slavery who look upon the chance you have to vote as a dream they will never realize?"

HILLSBORO, ORE., ARGUS: "Just how absurd can one get? In a recent speech a gubernatorial candidate . . . charged that 'selfish interests, mostly malefactors of great wealth, are for destroying the independence that prosperity gives the farmer.' Such a statement is ridiculous for in the final analysis various segments of the economy are complementary and dependent on the other. Anyone would be nothing less than foolish to want to see any part of the population lose prosperity because of interdependence. In the long run he would also be the loser."

WESTMINSTER, MD., TIMES: "The less we demand from our government, the fewer liberties we shall have to relinquish."

The Highway Problem

Proposals for greatly-increased expenditures on highway construction "should not be looked upon as simply highway problems and nothing else."

That view was recently expressed by William T. Faricy, president of the Association of American Railroads. The proposals, he continues, "should be examined from the point of view of how the added construction is to be financed—where the money is coming from. They should be examined from the point of view of how the roads are to be used and how they are to be protected from abuse. And they should be examined from the point of view of effect upon other forms of transportation."

Survey after survey indicates that, generally speaking, the big commercial highway freighters are not paying their proper share of the cost of building and repairing highways—and these costs have soared to an almost incredible level because of the growth of such heavy traffic. That puts the highway carriers in a favored competitive position in relation to the railroads. Yet we must depend on the railroads to take care of most of the added traffic load in emergencies—in World War II, for instance, the rails picked up and carried 87 per cent of that load. And the railroads can expand their capacity more readily, with greater economy of manpower and materials, than other forms of transportation.

Thus one basic test of the soundness of any highway program is what its effect will be on the transportation picture as a whole.

LAKE VILLA

(written for last week)

Mrs. Fred Popp is much improved after her recent illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rothers and children of Berkeley, Ill., visited Mrs. Rothers' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kapple, a few days last week while Mr. Rothers spent a few days hunting.

Cedar Lake Camp Royal Neighbors will hold its next meeting at the village hall as usual on Tuesday evening, Nov. 30, and will have as guests members from Prairie View, Libertyville, Wadsworth, Russell, Waukegan, North Chicago, Gurnee, Grayslake and Antioch and visiting members will occupy the officers' chairs for the evening. Mrs. Geri Polson is chairman in charge of arrangements.

The Lake Villa band concert will be held at the school next Sunday afternoon, and if those members who are also members of the Intermediate or high school M. Y. F. and are going to attend the meeting at Waukegan in the evening, will please bring sandwiches for lunch and cocoa or pop will be provided at the church so that all may be ready on time.

New Woman's Auxiliary Formed

A meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary to Lake Villa Memorial Post 4308 of the V. F. W. was held on Nov. 10 for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year and 30 members were present. Elected were: President, Frances Barnstable; sr. vice pres., Rosella McCarthy; jr. vice pres., Marlene Coia; treasurer, Shirley Nader; chaplain, Dorothy Barnstable; conductress, Cornelia Schneider; guard, Ginger Tweed; three year trustees, Zelma Nickerson and Dorothy Langbein, and one year trustee, Florence Behrens.

Appointed officers were: secretary, Ramona Sheehan; flag bearer, Annaleise Nader; banner bearer, Vicky Collins; patriotic instructor, Grace Evans; historian, Madeline Sciacero; color guards, Enid Bartlett, Lowayne Wedge, Betty Schneider and Jeanne Mack.

The ladies will conduct a bake sale on Saturday, Nov. 20, at Hucker's garage. Refreshments were served and plans made for the joint installation which will be held at the Lake Villa grade school gym on Saturday, Nov. 27 at 8 p. m., to which the public is invited.

Wives, mothers, sisters and daughters of overseas veterans are invited to become members of the auxiliary, and regular meetings will be held on the first Monday of each month.

The group was fortunate in having the assistance of Mrs. Mary Hix, of St. Charles, Ill., who is Fifth District chief of staff, and Mrs. Marge Gardner of Geneva, Ill., who is Fifth District conductress, in conducting the election.

I personally consider that a woman who shows the power of her intellect is more to be respected than a woman who shows the power of her legs. But men always prefer the legs.

It is dangerous to represent to man how near he is to the level of the beasts without showing him at the same time his greatness.

It is the peculiar quality of a fool to perceive the faults of others and to forget his own.

I hope I shall never be such a coward as to mistake oppression for peace.

These boys presented their mothers with miniature Boy Scout pins.

Other awards went to Dan Lightsey, Commander of American Legion Post No. 748, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Young, who had generously donated to the boys from their Merry-Go-Round bakery, and First Class Petty Officer, Al France, who had given photography instruction.

Following the award ceremonies Dr. Richard A. Carlucci, retiring scoutmaster, turned the proceedings over to Harry Jesse, district Boy Scout commissioner, who presented the annual charter for 1955 to the troop and installed officials.

John Horan, Jr., was named institutional representative. Dr. Carlucci was installed as troop chairman assisted by Robert Taylor, Lester Chinn, James Balsamello, and Harold Root as his committee. Gerald Wald, American Legion child counselor, will serve the troop in a guidance capacity.

Chester Galonka was installed as the new scoutmaster with Marvin Heath as his assistant.

Refreshments were served by the mothers.

Maybe Cats and Dogs, But Never Little Frogs

SCHENECTADY, N. Y.—Frogs and other small creatures do not fall with the rain, despite superstitious beliefs to the contrary.

General Electric Co., scientists say it is conceivable that a tornado might carry frogs aloft so they would fall to the ground later, perhaps with rain, but that it isn't too likely.

It is more plausible, they say, that a heavy rain would flood underground homes of frogs and other small creatures, forcing them into the open in large numbers. People seeing them on the ground might mistakenly think they fell with the rain.

Some Stump!
OLD SAYBROOK, Conn.—Col. Roger Whitman, having failed three times in attempts to burn out a peaky tree stump, piled automobile tires around it and set another blaze.

The flames were so hot they scorched a nearby tree and ignited a utility pole, but after the smoke subsided the stump was still intact.

North Prairie 4-H Boy Wins Scholarship and Key for Achievements

Three Lake County Agricultural 4-H members received high recognition at the 4-H Club Achievement meeting Nov. 13. Mark Connell received a $200 scholarship and the Illinois Key award. John Morse of the Grayslake 4-H Club was presented with a 19 jewel wrist watch. Nancy Fuller of the Ivanhoe Club was awarded a 36 volume set of encyclopedias.

Mark Connell, age 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Connell, Zion, and a member of the North Prairie 4-H Club for 8 years, was awarded a $200 scholarship by the Public Service Company of Northern Illinois. His Award was earned on work done in the Farm and Home Electric Activity. He wrote an essay telling how he used electricity in his 4-H Club projects.

In addition to winning the scholarship, Mark was also awarded the 4-H Key Award by Mr. Harold Sperling, a representative of the Cities Service Oil Company, sponsor of the 4-H Key Award program. The award consisted of an attractive gold tie clasp. The 4-H Key Award is an award made to a Blue Award group of Outstanding Members.

Mark has been a County and State Project Honor and Outstanding club member for several years. This past year he was a delegate to the State Leadership Camp. He has carried on a wider variety of projects than any other club member in Lake county. His projects were also of the highest quality. This year his projects consisted of garden, tractor maintenance, farm concrete, corn, winter wheat, dairy, swine, poultry, home grounds improvement, entomology, farm electricity, and fruit.

Mark is enrolled as a freshman in the College of Agriculture, University of Illinois.

John Morse, age 17, and a member of the Grayslake 4-H Club is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Morse of Grayslake. This is John's 8th year in 4-H club work.

John was presented with a 19 jewel wrist watch, which was given by Mrs. Charles R. Walgreen, sponsor of the Home Grounds Improvement project.

The other special award winner was Nancy Fuller, age 15, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Fuller of Mundelein, and a member of the Ivanhoe 4-H club. Nancy has as her projects forestry, and farm electricity.

All this - and more miles per gallon too!

Be sure to test out the phenomenal effect of "variable pitch propellers" in Dynaflo Drive*!

MAYBE — among the upcoming crop of new 1955 models — there's another car with an advance that can hold a candle to this one.

But we doubt it. We doubt it because — among the rumors of what's cooking in automotive laboratories — there's nothing to compare with what's actually happened at Buick.

It all started with the fact that modern air liners get two big advantages because they can change the pitch of their propellers.

First, they get off the ground hundreds of feet sooner than they used to.

Second, they can stretch their gasoline by setting propeller blades at just the right "pitch" for cruising.

So Buick engineers asked themselves — "If you can do it with air, why can't you do it with oil — the oil inside a Dynaflo Drive?"

And to make a long story short — they could, and they did.

They engineered the propeller-like blades inside the "stator" of a Dynaflo Drive so they can change their pitch as much as 75 degrees.

That provides one setting for more-miles-per-gallon, and another for an instant safety-surge of power when it's needed.

All you do is push the accelerator pedal the last half-inch beyond the full throttle position — and a-way you go!

Of course, there's a lot more to make a visit to our showrooms the "must" of the new-car year.

There's a step-up in styling as sensational as the step-up in power.

And the step-up in horsepower is this: 236 in the ROADMASTER, SUPER and CENTURY — 188 in the SPECIAL.

But the thrill of the year is Buick's latest engineering "first" — and what it does for the man or woman who drives the latest and greatest Dynaflo Drive.

*Standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.

Pay-off on progress!

Buicks today go a lot farther on a gallon of gas, thanks to constant improvement in Dynaflo and in engine design. Even the new 236-hp ROADMASTER averages 4.8 more miles per gallon than Buicks of six years ago.

Thrill of the year is BUICK

Antioch High Musicians To See "The King and I"

Fifty-eight members of Antioch High School's a cappella choir and girls glee club will go to Chicago on Saturday, Dec. 4 to attend a matinee performance of the original New York production "The King and I".
